

June 2019

THIS MONTH'S VALUE IS...

Trust

- If you trust someone to do something, you believe that they will do it.
- If you trust someone, you believe that they are honest and sincere and will not deliberately do anything to harm you.
- If you say you trust that something is true, you mean you hope and expect that it is true.
- If you trust someone with something important or valuable, you allow them to look after it or deal with it.

Things the family can try at home...

- Remember it can take time to build trust.
- Keep your word and follow through with your actions.
- Take your time before making decisions and promises and be sure you can fulfil them.
- Try to always be honest.
- Help people whenever you can.
- Admit when you have made a mistake.
- When you pay attention to your children's questions and take the time to answer them honestly, children learn that you are someone they can go to when they need information and support.

We would love to hear about how your family has been showing the value of Trust! Make sure you let your teacher know by the end of June, so we can all be proud of you. You can ask a grown up to fill in the 'Wow Value' slip below and hand it in!

Values WOW for Trust

Have a read of this famous fable by Aesop. Think about how this story links to the value of Trust.

The Lion & the Mouse

A Lion lay asleep in the forest, his great head resting on his paws. A timid little Mouse came upon him unexpectedly, and in her fright and haste to get away, ran across the Lion's nose. Roused from his nap, the Lion laid his huge paw angrily on the tiny creature to kill her.

"Spare me!" begged the poor Mouse. "Please let me go and some day I will surely repay you."

The Lion was much amused to think that a Mouse could ever help him. But he was generous and finally let the Mouse go.

Some days later, while stalking his prey in the forest, the Lion was caught in the toils of a hunter's net. Unable to free himself, he filled the forest with his angry roaring. The Mouse knew the voice and quickly found the Lion struggling in the net. Running to one of the great ropes that bound him, she gnawed it until it parted, and soon the Lion was free.

"You laughed when I said I would repay you," said the Mouse. "Now you see that even a Mouse can help a Lion."
